About Capital Health Plan

In 1982, a group of Tallahassee's civic leaders came together to create a quality, affordable health care system to meet the health needs of the community. Forty years later, Capital Health Plan has become a national health care leader. We started with 5,000 members and a network of 75 doctors. We've now grown to more than 135,000 members with a broad network of more doctors, hospitals and other health care providers throughout our service area.

Service Area and Eligibility

Capital Health Plan proudly serves Franklin, Gadsden, Jefferson, Leon, Liberty, Madison, Taylor, and Wakulla counties in Florida.

To be eligible for our plans, you must live or work in our service area. To be eligible for our Medicare plans, you must be enrolled in Medicare Part A, and be entitled to Medicare Part B.
